MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM:

Director, Office of External Affairs

25X1

SUBJECT: Your Meeting with The Yale Political Union

1. Action Requested: None; information only.

2. Background:

a. You are scheduled to address about 35 members of the Yale Political Union in the DCI Conference room from 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. on Monday, 8 March. The group is comprised mainly of Yale undergraduates. The President of the Yale Political Union, Joel Rubin, and the Program Chairman, Linley Gwennap, will be leading the group.

b. My deputy,  or Chuck Wilson, Chief of Public Affairs, will introduce you. A photographer will be on hand at the conclusion of the briefing to take photographs of you with the program chairman and group leaders.

c. The Yale Political Union, as one of America's foremost political forums, is holding its symposium in Washington, DC this year in order to meet with prominent persons in government and journalism. They are particularly interested in hearing your views on "The Current State of Intelligence."

d. Members of my staff will be on hand throughout their visit.
